About Us

The foundation stone of our company was laid on 14th February'1949, but we, Boulton Trading Corporation, forayed into the business of refrigeration & air conditioning in 1962 under the headship of our founders, Shri Umrao Singh Choraria and Ulhas Chand Choraria. They established the company with a motto to revamp and add an innovative edge to the trade of Refrigeration and Air Conditioning for years to come. The initial business journey was challenging but with relentless commitment and unyielding strength, Boulton was successfully catapulted to the status of a renowned and reputable name in the trading of Air conditioning equipments and Refrigeration spares.

From trading of Air conditioner and Refrigeration spares, the company diversified business, gradually aligning itself perfectly with the rapidly changing technology landscape of Refrigeration business, even in the global market. To sustain its strong positioning in the market, Boulton empowered by its team of trained personnel strove hard to meet dynamic and technical dimensions of the trade to perfection.
